

SEMINAR: LEARNING CAFÉ

JUSTIFICACIÓN

This activity is offered by the CPR in Plasencia to English teachers and others working in the bilingual sections of schools in our catchment area. The seminar/workshop course, designed within the framework of the Plan de Formación, aims not only to learn the language but to learn in the language, thus improving and enriching the linguistic abilities of the participants. It will provide an inviting and warm space for learning, where pedagogic experiences and concerns will be shared and collaborative learning fostered. These sessions will be coordinated and facilitated by native speaker Jane Marshall, teacher-trainer and English graduate.

OBJETIVOS

- To improve language ability
- To perfect the five skills: listening, reading, speaking, writing and interacting.
- Encourage and foster collaborative learning between teachers.

CONTENIDOS

These seminar-workshops will provide a wide range of strategies in a variety of themes and topics to motivate participants to put into practice their knowledge and competency, both linguistic and pedagogical.

METODOLOGÍA

The development of these seminar-workshops is eminently practical, fostering the participation of the group members. Training in listening and speaking skills will be provided through enquiries into pedagogical themes, and reading and writing by producing materials which can be used in the classroom.

It is an opportunity to bring linguistic ability up to date with the support of a native speaker, using current and contemporary materials.

DESTINATARIOS

25 openings are on offer for this seminar. It is only available for teachers who are currently working in the CPR area of Plasencia. The course is addressed to teachers of English. The minimum of participants is set on 12; and the maximum of 25.

PONENTE

These seminars will be coordinated and facilitated by native speaker Jane Marshall, teacher-trainer and English graduate.
